MATCH PREVIEW

David Wright previews tonight's match against UTS Olympic.

To-night's visitors return to Bruce Stadium knowing the last time they were here back in November they stole the points with what one has to admit was a memorable fightback - although I am sure most Canberra Cosmos fans will want to erase that particular experience.

UTS Olympic have established a reputation for their never-say-die attitude - repeatedly scrambling to pick up valuable points in the last ten minutes of a game. This attitude has been enough to keep them in one of the top two rungs of the Ericsson Cup ladder since the ladder took sensible shape after half a dozen rounds.

The secret to Olympic's success has undoubtedly been their strike power. With powerful forwards like Kimon Taliadoros and Kris Trajanovski and the speed of Olyroo Norm Tome, they have scored marginally less goals than Adelaide City and current league leaders, Marconi-Fairfield.

Trajanovski, with his distinctive pony-tail, is having a great season having netted 17 goals this season, second only to Adelaide City's Damian Mori. Trajanovski's form has come to the attention of Socceroo coach, Eddie Thomson, and it can only be a matter of time before Kris gets the nod from Thomson.

If Olympic are vulnerable, it is in defence, having conceded 32 goals - the most of any team currently in the top six. Their away form has been inconsistent of late. Despite convincing wins over Marconi and Sydney United away from Leichhardt Oval, they have lost their last two when they travelled to Newcastle and Brisbane.

The game will have special significance for at least two people returning to Canberra. Olympic assistant coach Steve Darby has a long association with the National Capital having been a teacher at Radford College and a member of the ACT Soccer Federation before his move to Soccer Australia some five years ago. The other is Ivan Zelic.

I am sure Canberra Cosmos fans will welcome young Ivan - Ned's younger brother - to Bruce Stadium. The former Canberra Deakin player was snapped up by Olympic when he had completed his scholarship at the AIS. He has quickly established himself in the Olympic side and, despite his youth, shows remarkable coolness on the ball reminiscent of Ned at his best.

UTS Olympic's probable line-up for tonight will be Mike Gibson in goal; defenders Dave Barratt, Socceroo, Milan Blagojevic, Adam Ciantar, Ivan Zelic and Nick Meredith; the midfield will include the exciting Peter Tsekenis, Elias Augerinos and the experienced Walter Ardone. Their problems, ironically are up front where coach David Ratcliffe has an embarrassment of riches to choose from since he signed former Socceroo, Alistair Edwards, from Malaysia. He will be competing with Taliadoros, Trajanovski and Tome for places in the front line.

Cosmos have struggled this season against the Sydney clubs, having picked up only one point from a possible 18 against the three Sydney teams to date. I believe we have the ability to beat them provided we convert a reasonable proportion of the chances we will undoubtedly create. With Lachlan Armstrong returning to form, Alex Castro driving forward and Paul Wade getting 110% out of the players, we can do it, but I think it will take three goals, together with concentration for the full ninety minutes. I am sure Mike Lyons will be the first to remind the players of how easy it is to let three points slip in the last few minutes of a game. A score draw seems the most likely outcome of what will no doubt be an exciting encounter.

From the LYONS Den

"I am pleased to report that the lads have bounced back well from our painful experience in Adelaide a couple of weeks back. A spirited performance against Sydney United saw us pick up a point, followed by our first win of the New Year against Wollongong City who showed in the second half that they are a spirited side. The two games also showed that the Ericsson Cup is a very close competition where any side can knock off the most fancied of opposition teams.

We were able to relax a little last week when we all attended the Canberra Cosmos lunch at the Canberra Rex Hotel. The management of the Rex did us proud and it was good to see so many distinguished guests turning up and supporting the event. Politicians, leaders of the business community all thoroughly enjoyed themselves as did the players and coaching staff. If last Friday was anything to go by, "Irish Bingo" will soon become a fixture at similar events in the future.

George Negus and SBS's Kyle Patterson were guest speakers and did a great job promoting the game and Canberra Cosmos.

I'd also like to extend a special vote of the thanks to the 'organising committee' of Paul Murphy, Bob Smoothey, Barry Neame, Duncan Smith and the very professional Connections and Angels - Michele Levy and Rosemary Done.

This last week has also seen Canberra soccer make its mark on the international front. Ned Zelic has received a great honour from FIFA having been selected for a World XI. No doubt our visitors to-night will claim him as their own!

Another player with Canberra and UTS Olympic connections to make the news in recent days is Andrew Bernal. The Belconnen youngster, now with English First Division side, Reading, has been selected in the Socceroos side to play Scotland. With Ned and George Kulcsar, also from Canberra, included in the team for Hampden Park, Andrew will feel like he is back at Hawker Oval - until he hears that famous Hampden Roar!

Thanks to SBS we will all be able to share in the players' experience. Check your TV guide and set your alarm for an early Thursday morning start - I'm sure it will be worth it.

Finally, Cosmos goalkeepers seem to be in the news this week. By the time you read this Steve Mautone's transfer to West Ham United should be completed and he should be eligible to play before the end of the month. His prospects of making the first team look good as they had to call on Les Sealey to replace injured first team keeper, Miklosko - and Les is almost as old as I am.

Readers of Australian British Soccer Weekly may have noticed that our visitors to-night - UTS Olympic - were reported by John Economos as being "...in a desperate bid to beat the transfer deadline.... they are expected to snap up the services of 18 year old goalkeeper, Danny Milosovic". To put all your minds at rest, the Club has no intention of letting Danny go, at least not until his time comes and he is ready to follow Steve Mautone into the big time overseas.

UTS OLYMPIC - CASTS FROM THE PAST

UTS Olympic have visited the Canberra region 10 times in the pre-Cosmos era. Here's what happened in some of them...

1977 - Canberra 4 Sydney Olympic 0
 Canberra's line-up and scorers: Tilsed, Moulis, Starke, Brown, Boskov, Cant, Henderson (1 goal), Hogg, Gruicic (1 goal), B Stoddart, Alston (1 goal). 1 own goal Coach John Warren. Canberra City's largest win in the inaugural national league season saw two 17 year old Canberra players perform brightly: Danny Moulis and Steve Hogg.

1978 - Canberra 1 Sydney Olympic 3
 Canberra's line-up and scorer: Tilsed, Brown, Start, Henderson, Parker, Cant, Stoddart, Davies, Gruicic, Byrne (1 goal), Marinello. Coach: John Warren.

The now defunct 'Soccer World' tells the story from the grandstand:

"Coach Johnny Warren exclaimed 'the British mafia had its say!' as the referee's whistle signalled Canberra City's first home loss [in 9 games] of the season. Warren was bitter after many months of hostility and harassment of the younger players and himself by some of the British imports and a small but vocal British minority within the supporters' club. So Warren give them enough rope to virtually hang themselves. Brian Stoddart and James Cant returned as the rebels took over the team selection. 10 men from the mother country added Gruicic, and were confident that their overseas knowledge and experience would lead them to victory over their lowly placed opponents." (Soccer World's Canberra correspondent was none other than Cosmic Explosion's own Chris Kunz!)

1979 - Canberra 1 Sydney Olympic 3
 Canberra's line-up and scorer: Hoszowski, Moulis, Milovanovic, Hogg, Brown, Start, Salgado (Kawaleva), Cant (Gruicic-1goal), davis, Fielding, Byrne. Coach: Vic Fernandez. Despite doing "all the running", Canberra's only goal came courtesy of a penalty late in the game.

1981 - Canberra 2 Sydney Olympic 1
 Canberra's line-up and scorers: Wilson,

1982 - Canberra 2 Sydney Olympic 1
 Canberra's line up and scorers: Hoszowski, Ontong, Murray, Milovanovic, T.Byrne, Bryant, Christopoulos (1 goal), G.Byrne, Gibson, Brennan, MacLaren (Purdie - 1 goal). Coach: George Murray.

Canberra again with two 2nd half goals were too strong for their Sydney opponents, despite the visitors being 10 positions higher on the league ladder coming into this game.

1983 - Canberra 1 Sydney Olympic 1
 Canberra's line-up and scorer: Hoszowski, Young T.Byrne, S.Bryant (Moutsopolous), Murray, Cole, G.Byrne, Stone (1 goal), MacLaren, Gibson, Redmond. Coach: George Murray

Desperate defending from Steve Bryant and goal keeper Steve Hoszowski allowed Canberra to sneak through with a draw here.

1985 - Inter Monaro 3 Sydney Olympic 1
 Monaro's line-up and scorer: Hoszowski, Budini, Dachs (Gagetti), Santolin, Walsh, Willox, Ambrosino, Carbone, Dragicevic (2 goals - replaced by Brennan), Giampolo (1 goal), Thamnidis. Coach: Frank Maccarone. Monaro's first home win in the national league. Seiffert Oval's hero this day, Emil Dragicevic, was stretchered off the field after scoring his second goal in the 36th minute. Billy Willox followed, but after being sent for tangling with Olympic's Marshall Soper.

1985 - Canberra 1 Sydney Olympic 3
 Canberra's line-up and acorer: Franken, Jones, Harkins (Mihalidis), Byrne, Ontong, Gibson, Sermann, Dunn (Perinovic), Bryant, H.Phillips, Lamond (1 goal). Coach: Roy Thompson.

Olympic replaced Canberra in the top five with a 3-1 victory at Bruce. Canberra piled on a massive 19 corners but in the end to no avail. A home team victory here would have eventuated in Canberra's only national league final's appearance.

1986 - Inter Monaro 1 Sydney Olympic 5
 Monaro's line-up and scorer: Hoszowski, Walsh, Budini, Dachs (Giampolo), Williams, Willox (D'Addario), Ambrosino, Wotherspoon, Winn, Todd (1 goal), Carbone. Coach: Frank Maccarone.

This scoreline was not surprising given the end of the season placings of these two clubs. Monaro finished the 1986 season at the bottom of the northern division national league ladder. Olympic were northern division champions. Also, Monaro were crippled by a rash of injuries which disabled players such as Marko Perinovic and Joe Gagetti for this match.

1986 - Canberra 1 Sydney Olympic 0

UPDATE ON THE ACADEMY

Today we welcome UTS Olympic to Bruce Stadium for the second time this season; in the first game the Academy took the game 3-1, and in the Christmas game at Leichardt Oval, we won 2-1. So, today we will be looking to take maximum points again to continue our push to make the play-offs. At the time of writing, the Academy are in fourth spot, and the semi-finals of the Les Scheinflug Cup comprise only the top four teams. However, Olympic are a well disciplined and skilful team and the task today will not be easy as Olympic, also, have designs on a top four spot.

Last week the Academy returned to top form with an emphatic victory over close rivals Wollongong City 3-0. The Academy took the lead in the 22nd minute. The Academy then wasted a bag full of opportunities to increase their goal difference but in the end were comfortable winners.

The penalty received against Wollongong is the first penalty the Academy have been awarded this season - in 24 games. We have conceded four penalties this season, but without much damage as Blair Machin has saved all four!

Two newcomers who have recently made their Academy debuts are Shane Lyons from Olympic and Geoff Howarth from Belconnen Soccer Clubs. Another youngster, who has been given his chance to impress recently is Matthew Valeri, son of former Canberra City star, Walter. Matt has now hit three goals in the last three games and is looking sharp.

From The Grandstand

In this issue, Chris Kunz looks at the result of the A League membership process and wonders if there shouldn't be a late modification.

The announcement of 14 teams in next year's Ericsson Cup took a lot of people by surprise. Perth Glory had already been admitted, but like many others, I had expected a 16 team competition with Essendon, Carlton and the ARL-backed Manly Warringah Seahawks being added.

The late withdrawal of Essendon's application and the requested delay of Carlton's entry for one season, left Soccer Australia in a bit of a quandary. David Hill had publicly stated a couple of months ago that Melbourne would get new teams - but who was left?

The answer of course, was the Collingwood Warriors, a 'united entry' by the Collingwood AFL club and Heidelberg United. The fact that the Warriors had been dumped from the competition after a court case just seven months earlier did not seem to matter. It was clearly a sign that mergers were encouraged and that Soccer Australia had to be seen to be doing something about the migrant dominated soccer scene in Melbourne.

The question that needs to be asked, of course, is will anything change? I would like to think so, but I have my doubts, certainly as far as Collingwood Warriors are concerned.

Exactly how neutrals will be able to identify with and remain amongst a crowd of around 5,000 supporters of Greek background is predictable, especially if Greek flags appear. The team will quickly become recognised as just a renamed Heidelberg, leaving Melbourne with two Greek and one Croatian-backed entry.

Certainly Collingwood executives have expressed no real hope for a broadening of Heidelberg's base - saying that from their point of view, they merely want Victoria Park and associated facilities better utilised.

The Carlton entrance shows far greater promise. They have no direct migrant group affiliation and will be entering a side in the Youth League competition from next season.

The Carlton entry will provide an outlet for the many Melbourne fans who cannot identify with the migrant-backed sides and hopefully start to move soccer in that city towards broader acceptance.

Broader acceptance was something that took another battering with the behaviour of the Sydney United supporters at our march 13 home game. I wrote in ABSW after the disturbances that this group caused at our October 14 home game that Soccer Australia needed to take serious action. Fines resulted, but that clearly has not been enough.

Supporters of the Canberra City/Cosmos community-based side have never caused or been involved in violence at our matches since Canberra entered the Philips League in 1977.

I can well remember with pride, my Hungarian-born and raised father fervently supporting Canberra City against the Hungarian National team in their friendly in 1980.

Sydney badly needs a side from the northern suburbs. The application by the Manly Warringah (and ARL-backed and Manly Warringah Soccer Association supported) Seahawks would be an ideal replacement, while there is also the broad community-backed Sydney Cosmos option.

Over to you Soccer Australia....
